Right or Left Handed?

Right Hand Cutter

The right hand version covers most lathe work encountered in the home or professional shop. It will cut towards the lathe chuck and will also do facing cuts or shoulder cuts.

Left Hand Cutter

The left hand cutter is for situations where you may need to cut towards a shoulder away from the lathe headstock. It also works well for threading as it provides greater clearance from the chuck.

---

APPLICATION OF DIAMOND TOOLHOLDERS

---

ORIENTATION OF DIAMOND TOOLHOLDERS FOR THREAD CUTTING

---

SOME OTHER APPLICATIONS FOR THE LEFT HAND TOOLHOLDER

Facing large diameters

Turning the OD on large workpieces close to the limit of the lathe